Zero-sum stochastic dierential games without the Isaacs condition

Daniel Hernández-Hernández, CIMAT, México

For a zero-sum stochastic game which does not satisfy the Isaacs condition, we provide a value function representation for an Isaacs-type equation whose Hamiltonian lies in between the lower and upper Hamiltonians, as a convex combination of the two. This is a joint work with Mihai Sirbu.